METHODOLOGY

RETURNS

The returns are calculated from the net prices of the Funds, although for some Pension Funds, duly marked, the prices considered does not include the management fee. Calculation is made in accordance with the formulae below that assume that dividends are reinvested free of subscription fees at the following price that reflects the decrease caused by the dividend. The calculation of returns does not take into account any subscription or redemption fees.

As of December 30, 2005, inclusive, the returns and risk began to be calculated based on the valuation date, rather than on the reporting date, as had been happening so far. Thus, from this date forward, the final price of the Fund considered in the calculation will always be the one valued at the day the calculus refer to. However, the price series before December 30, 2005 remained unchanged. Therefore, for calculation periods beginning before that date, the initial price considered in the calculus will be the one disclosed on that date and not the one valued on that date.

However, the Fund price presented in this file is the one disclosed by the Management Company associated with the date in question and therefore may not be the price that was used to calculate the returns and risk.

VOLATILITY

Obtained from the standard deviation of weekly returns, according to the following formulae:

$$\text{VOLATILITY} = \sqrt{52 / (n-1) \times \sum_i (x_i - \bar{x})^2} \times 100$$

$$x_i = \left[ \frac{VPL_t}{VPL_{t-1}} \times \left( 1 + \frac{R_j}{VPL_d} \right) \right]^{-1} \quad \bar{x} = \frac{1}{n} \times \sum_i x_i$$

VPL<sub>t</sub> - Price of the Fund at the end of the calculation period
R<sub>j</sub> - Dividend paid by the Fund at time j

n - Number of days of the calculation period

VPL<sub>t</sub> - Price of the Fund at the beginning of the calculation period
VPL<sub>d</sub> - Price of the Fund after the dividend is paid at time d
VPL<sub>n</sub> - Price of the Fund at the last business day of the week n

RISK CLASSES

According to the average of last 3 months figures for the standard deviation of the past 104 weekly returns, the Funds are included in the following risk classes:

1 - 0 % < x < 1,5 %
2 - 1,5 % < x < 5 %

3 - 5 % < x < 10 %
4 - 10 % < x < 15 %

5 - 15 % < x < 20 %
6 - x > 20 %

X is the forementioned average.

Funds without 116 observations of weekly returns will not be included in any risk class and will be assigned with risk class *

(2) The date of reference for the return and risk presented is January 30, 2014

Risk Class = * for all Funds with less than 116 observations of weekly returns

* - As of December 30, 2005, inclusive, the returns and risk began to be calculated based on the valuation date, rather than on the reporting date, as had been happening so far. Thus, from this date forward, the final price of the Fund considered in the calculation will always be the one valued at the day the calculus refer to. However, the price series before December 30, 2005 remained unchanged. Therefore, for calculation periods beginning before that date, the initial price considered in the calculus will be the one disclosed on that date and not the one valued on that date.

** - The Fund price presented in this file is the one disclosed by the Management Company associated with the date in question
